Atwood vancing the cause of reform. This is the way the list of starts out:

The next letter to Atwood was sent from Wichita, signed "Waldo Flood, president," and enclosed tickets to be sold, and a coupon which was to be exchanged for a prize ticket (one-fifth ticket. No 52617) in the next drawing, when $50 worth of the company's tickets had been sold, and that amount less 25 per cent commission, had been remitted. Mr. Atwood now buckled down to business and by dint of hard work disposed of the requisite number of tickets. He expressed the proper amount. $37.50, to "M. L. Warren & Co., general agents," Wichita, Kansas, and turned in his conpon and in due time received an elaborately engraved ticket bearing the number "52617," He glauced over the ticket, and eagerly scanned the official list of prizes. "No. 52617" draws 2,500. (He failed to note that the $ sign is not utixed, or that RISON.

his ticket reads "payable in tickets.") In fact the letter accompanying the "prize ticket" stated in plain terms that it was payable in tickets. Mr. Atwood had unbounded confidence in the company, and supposing that nothing remained to be done except to collect his fifth, he forwarded the ticket to the Wichita National bank of this city for collection.

Major Ewing promptly informed Mr. Atwood that the ticket was only good for 500 begus tickets and was not payable in money. In righteous wrath Mr. Atwood wrote to 'M. I.
